OLD BUSINESS:

NEW BUSINESS:

BLIGHT: 4 this month 1) W Dunbar Rd -cars 2) Geiger Rd - Burned barn clean-up 3) Baldwin Rd - Junk, cars 4) W Dunbar Rd - Chickens.

Supervisor Blanchette stated that the annual meeting with the Monroe County Road Commission to discuss future road projects is October 1st at 9:00 am

The board discussed that they received a letter from Larry Kurtz stating he no longer would do Blight and would be done doing inspections when his license ran out next year. Charles LaPointe said he would do Blight until we found someone else to do both blight and back up building inspector. Any interested applicants please contact the Township.

Sherriff Goodnough was present to give his yearly update on crime in Raisinville Township, he had the last 4 years to compare and there has been a drop across the board in calls/incidents in Raisinville Township. He also explained to us the shortage of officers in Monroe County, there are some being trained right now. The Township is hoping things will improve with the powers that be for paying them and having a good retirement plan so that these officers stay with Monroe.
